ESSAY ON CHURCH ATTENDANCE AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION

For each of the items below, please attach a separate sheet with a neat, full, and detailed (correct grammar and punctuation) essay that fully addresses the following items:

1. Describe your attendance/involvement/participation/stewardship in HHUMC (our church) both past and present; place emphasis on activities during the past year. Include any church offices, committees, events, etc. in which you have served (for example, church attendance, activities, positions of responsibility, service, financial giving, small group membership, etc.) Describe your participation in projects and activities of this church. Include any special honors or awards. It is imperative that you respond to this as fully as possible. If you can't list at least 50 hours of activity (including attendance), it will adversely affect your application. Mention dates of events, positions and involvement and how extensively you participated in each.

II. Describe YOUR FAMILY'S involvement/participation/stewardship in our church both past and present. The scholarship is toward total support for active families. Include any offices, committees, events, etc. in which they have served (for example, attendance, activities, positions of responsibility, service, financial giving, small group membership, etc.) Describe your family's participation in missions and activities of this church. Respond as fully as possible. Mention dates of events, positions and involvement.

III. Describe YOUR participation in projects and activities of the local community both past and present. Include any special honors or awards. Describe any participation in missions, activities and projects of other churches or congregations that you may be involved with both past and present.

IV. Below, or on a separate sheet, describe any special circumstances that you feel the committee should consider such as financial hardship, family situation or other special conditions of which the committee should be made aware.

I understand that the Kaebnick Scholarship selection committee encourages me to be a loyal and participating member of this congregation and my campus congregation with "my prayers, my presence, my gifts and my service."

I understand that as an applicant for a Harriett Kaebnick Scholarship, I must schedule an interview in person with the Scholarship Committee at HHUMC during May or June.

I agree that photos or movie clips in which my face is recognizable may be used for publicity, etc. unless I send the committee, in writing, a letter indicating that no photos or movie clips in which my face may be recognized may be used.

My photo is attached and I understand that as an applicant for a Kaebnick Scholarship, I must schedule an interview with the Scholarship Committee at HHUMC each year.

I certify that the information in this application is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and understanding.
